Detailed Description of Use:
ScreenCastify allows teachers to easily create, edit and share screen recordings. It is a Chrome extension and is free. Recordings can be shared offline. It is considered one of the easiest screen recording tools for classroom use. There are premium pricing options, but the free subscription (ScreenCastify Lite) provides enough options that most educators would not need to upgrade. The premium option is only $2.00 a month. Teachers can create screen recordings for student directions, for example how to complete an online assignment. Students can create screen recordings to teach peers how to do something online. Recordings can be saved in Google Drive and linked/shared. When shared in Google Drive, you can enable viewers to comment on the video.
